Your job is to find important aspects from the website. Develop questions you would like your group to discuss. Focus on the main ideas of the website, and find what you think is most interesting to you and your group. You will be in charge of the group discussion.

Possible discussion questions or topics for today:

1. ______________________________________________________

2. ______________________________________________________

3. ______________________________________________________

4. ______________________________________________________

5. ______________________________________________________

Questions to think about:

What were you thinking about as you read through the website?
What was the website about?
What are the most important ideas?
How did you feel when you read through the website?