Targeted Audience

Guidance Counselors

This website is most useful for individuals looking to, or are already in, the field of counseling.

It provides many good techniques to becoming the most effective counselor.

Personal Reflection

I found this website to be very useful. As a student trying to pursue a counseling degree, I believe that I will be able to use to website a lot in the future. It will be very helpful once becoming a counselor because it will help me focus on the students personal wants and needs. I could use it to assess them and find out what they are really looking for in their future education and what they want to do. The many counseling techniques provided will also help a great deal because it will allow me to become a

Parents

This site is also beneficial to parents as well. They can go online and help their children look into college and career choices.

Teachers

Educators can use this site in many ways also. There are many sections with helpful advice on special education. Here, they can find useful resources and find good ways to help with more effective counselor. Learning from others experience is one of the best ways. I think that I will definitely return to this website in the near future and use to often.
