A WONDERFUL WEBSITE.

A wonderful website for teachers to use; Discovery Education can be subscribed too but also offers free materials. The Classroom Resources section is filled with free materials to assist any teacher (or parent). The website offers free use of the puzzle makers, a library of lesson plans, a section for the students to use and explore, and my personal favorite a area for new teachers to share their concerns and worries.

NEW TEACHER SURVIVAL

This section is located under Featured Content on the website. It offers a new teacher a place to get basic information they may need starting out such as classroom management, how to use the technology and a place to vent and ask other teachers for help.

I believe this is a great resource for new and experienced teachers, along with parents and students. Discovery is a well trusted name for factual information. I have already used the Lesson plan library and the puzzle marker section. I am looking forward to becoming a new teacher and blogging with others to find use hints. This website is very east to use and navigate through making it a wonderful tool for everyone.

LESSON PLANS.

Sometimes as a teacher our minds just go blank. That is ok. With the Lesson Plan Library a teacher can search through lesson plans to help get a idea flowing. You can choose to search by elementary, intermediate and adolescences, or by subject and grade. Either way it is simple to browse the lesson plans and even simpler to print., all you need is a PDF Reader. At the bottom of the page of Lesson Plan Libraries, Featured Lesson Plans are offered. It gives you a idea on some of the best lesson plans on there.
