Name: ____________________________________________________________

Carnivores Quiz

Print out the quiz.
Answer the questions below.

Part 1: Short answer

1. Why are some carnivores called secondary consumers?
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

2. Why are some carnivores called tertiary consumers?
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

3. How does a predator get their food?
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

4. How do scavengers find their food?
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

5. What other part of the chain does a scavenger fit into and why?
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________

Part 2: Short Essay

6. Pick one ecosystem’s carnivores and write a short essay.
   Answer the following. Who are the carnivores? What animals do they eat? Are these animals secondary or tertiary consumers?
   _______________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________